Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego Awards Contract

SAN DIEGO — Georgia Tech Applied Research Corporation, Georgia Institute of Technology, Atlanta, Ga., is being awarded a $10,168,864 indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity cost-reimbursement contract to provide academic research, engineering and analysis in support of scientific projects at the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Command, the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego, the Naval Health Research Center, and other government research and development activities. This contract is one of three contracts awarded; all three awardees will compete for task orders during the ordering period. This two-year contract includes one, three-year option which, if exercised, would bring the potential cumulative value of this contract to $28,044,562. Work will be performed in Atlanta (75 %) and San Diego (25 %). The period of performance of the base contract is from July 31, 2003 through July 30, 2005. Contract funds will not expire at the end of the current fiscal year. This contract was competitively procured among educational and other nonprofit institutions via the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego e-Commerce Central web site and three offers were received. The Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center San Diego is the contracting activity (N66001-03-D-0041).
